ALL IN READINESS FOR BIG TRACK MEET AT CONVENTION HALL TONIGHT

More Relays Than In Former Meets, Says Hodgkins

G. W. MEN READY

Manager James Issues New Rules—Artillerymen as Marshals—G. W. Band To Furnish Music

The winter sports, as far as G. W. is concerned, will culminate tonight when the track meet is held at the Convention Hall. Final arrangements have been made for the indoor games which, according to the management, will surpass those given so far in the District. The G. W. Student Band under the directorship of David Davis, will furnish the music and the G. W. Coast Artillery Company will be in dress uniforms and will act as marshals. A large corps of ushers has been organized by H. H. Dutton. The one big improvement in this meet will be the attention given spectators.

Blue-prints of the stands in the hall have been made by H. H. Dutton and distributed among the ushers so that there will be very little time lost in seating the expected crowd. The track itself will be kept clear at all times. No runner will be allowed on the floor until his name is called by the clerk of the course.

According to Manager W. S. James, the G. W. meet will run off more major relays than any meet given in previous years. There will be a mile relay between Washington & Lee and Catholic University, also one between George Washington and the Carlisle Indians. The others are: Maryland State vs. Pennsylvania State, Lehigh vs. Lafayette, and a two-mile S. A. I. A. A. between University of Virginia and Georgetown. This will be the first time that Lafayette has ever appeared in Washington. Lehigh and

C. A. COMPANY MAKES CHANGE IN OFFICERS

Hodgkins Promoted To First Lieutenant—Pierce, Second Lieutenant

It has been officially announced that the vacancy in the position of second lieutenant in the Coast Artillery Company has been filled by the appointment of Sergeant James F. Pierce. Former Second Lieutenant H. W. Hodgkins is now first lieutenant, his commission as such being approved in the same War Department order that contained the commission of Lieutenant Pierce.

The appointment of Lieutenant Pierce had been expected for some time, his eligibility for the place being based upon the original examination for the commissioned positions held when the Company was first formed. He is thoroughly conversant with the details of his position in the Artillery side of the work and has had considerable experience in infantry drill. He has passed the examination for master gunner, the hardest examination in the Coast Artillery for enlisted men, and was formerly gun commander in the Company, holding that position while at camp last summer.

Corporal Harold N. Marsh has been appointed sergeant to complete the required number of sergeants, he having held that position last summer, being voluntarily reduced to the grade of corporal because he could not go to camp.

Private Elmer Griggs will fill the corporal's place vacated by the promotion of Marsh. Griggs has qualified as a first class electrician sergeant, but cannot be rated as such until another company is formed.

The results of the examinations held on February 18 at Fort Hunt for the ratings on gun commander, gun pointer, observer, and platter have not yet been announced, but everyone took the examinations and none had a percentage lower than 86.

DEAN TO SKIP CLASS

Sooner or later the novelty of "cutting" will "get to" the faculty members so that they will simply have to do it. Dean Hodgkins, of the A. & S. Department, is now undecided whether to "skip" tomorrow morning's class in calculus and attend the meeting of the Mathematical Association of America at Johns Hopkins, Baltimore. The members of the class say he might as well take in the trip since he seems anxious.

PLANS UNDER WAY FOR SPRING PLAY

G. W. Players Now Preparing For Larger Production In April

Following their pronounced success recently in the production of "A Night Off," the G. W. Players are now considering plans for the production of a play during the latter part of April, at some local theater. Several plays are now being considered by the play-reading committee, President Gluck having announced that it is the purpose of the players to produce a play not only of distinct literary merit, but much greater pretention than either "Disraeli," produced by the players last spring, or the recent "A Night Off." Several plays have already been suggested and are receiving consideration in connection with the feasibility of their staging and mounting. Among these are "Kismet," Otis Skinner's great Arabian Night success, "Joseph and His Brethren," the charming Biblical spectacle play from the pen of Louis N. Parker, author of "Disraeli," and "Napoleon," a great character study of the "Little Corsican," as produced by the late Richard Mansfield. The committee on plays requests any member of the University to submit the title of a play which he would like to see produced by the Players, and these plays will receive careful consideration.

Prize For Original Play
The Players are now considering the advisability of offering a prize of $35 for the best play written by a member of the University, capable of being produced by the Players. The play will be produced and the author's ideas carefully carried out by the Players.

The Players are considering equipping the Assembly Hall, at Columbian College, for the purpose of transforming it into a small theater, where productions may be given from time to time. These plans will be considered by a committee to be appointed by President Gluck and laid before the faculty for consideration. Should such a plan materialize, the theater could be used to advantage in connection with courses in the drama and playwriting given at the University.

Morehouse Announces Teams For Big Debates

The following men were chosen out of fifteen applicants at the debate tryouts held at the Law School on February 20: W. E. Kemp, T. L. Smith, H. S. Taylor; alternates, H. M. Brook and A. C. Wilkins.

These men will meet a team from Washington and Jefferson on April 5, and will debate on the question, "Resolved, That the United States Should Adopt Universal Military Service." The alternates will probably debate with Pittsburg University on April 12 on the same question, with constitutionality waived. The judges for the tryouts were Prof. L. M. Ferson, J. L. Parks and Coach P. B. Morehouse.

TRACK TICKETS REDUCED

Thursday, March 1.—An important reduction has been made in the price of seats for the track meet to be held at Convention Hall, tonight. General admission formerly 75 cents, is now 50 cents, and therefore athletic association tickets will be accepted for admission or 50 cents toward a reserved seat. The stands at the south of the hall which are reserved for G. W. students have been reduced from $1.50 to $1. The seats on both sides of the hall, that are opposite the finish line and the jumps, are $1.50, being reduced from $2.

G. W. QUINT WINS FROM SOUTHERN CHAMPIONS 28-19; CO-EDS VICTORS

Tennessee Outclassed; Girls Win By 18-16 Last Home Game

Playing the last and best game before a G. W. crowd, the G. W. quint smothered the champion Tennessee team by a score of 28-19 and the girls beat the Baltimore sextet by 18-16, at the double-header last Saturday night at the Y. M. C. A. The hall was crowded to its capacity. No one was allowed on the floor.

The Tennessee team has been praised by all the papers as "the undefeated team" and the "team which has only lost three games in three years." This team has generally been proclaimed the champions of the South. The G. W. men played, above their average.

The Tennessee team resorted to the long-passing game in the first half and attempted to even the count in the second by switching to the short-passing game; but the lead assumed by the Hatchettes from the outset was more than they could overcome, and the result of the hard-fought game, found them nine points in the rear.

G. W. Men Fight
The Buff and Blue played an admirable floor game and used the short pass advantageously. The visitors were out-guessed thruout. Hall was the star scorer for George Washington, caging five baskets for a total of 10 points. Harmon as foul shooter caged 8 free tosses.

At the end of the first half the score stood 12 to 5 in favor of the Hatchettes and from then to the end of the game they were never in danger.

Visitors Use Long Shots
Seeing the difficulty of tying the score the Tennesseans resorted to long, chance shots for the basket during the last few minutes of play, but without success.

There was consistent cheering at all stages of the game, by the enormous body of spectators, under leadership of Eugene Underwood.

Marshal Has Coached Many Champion Teams

Robert C. Marshall, who was recently appointed as director of the University athletics for next year, has turned out many championship teams. Mr. Marshall, who is 30 years old, prepared for college at Wellesel, Mass., High School, and was graduated at the University of Maine, where he won places on the baseball, football and track teams. He played summer baseball in New England, and professional basketball with Brockton in the Bay State League.

Championship Team At N. Y.

He turned out championship teams in basketball and baseball at the George Junior Republic in New York, where he taught and coached for two years. For the last two years he has taught and coached at the Roanoke City High School. His team won the championship in baseball in that part of the country. He has been an official in many college basketball games in Virginia, as well as at Cornell and Syracuse.

He has aroused great interest in athletics at Roanoke, and he comes recommended by such men as Dr. Al Sharpe, of Cornell.

CHERRY TREE WANTS ACTION

Editor Burton, of the Cherry Tree, urges that every student in Columbian College get in touch with his class editor as soon as possible, in order to facilitate the work of getting out the information relative to each individual. Students are requested to fill in cards with the name of the organizations of which they are members, class honors, and any other information relating to participation in college activities. Cards will be in the hands of the various class editors within the next few days. All students who find it impossible to get in touch with their editors are urged to hand the above information to the editor of the Cherry Tree or drop it in the box provided.

Part Time Faculty Does Not Have To Quit

NEW AMENDMENT ADOPTED

Faulty Wording Discovered By Hatchet, Would Have Hit Many Institutions and Individuals

The part-time faculty does not have to quit. The amendment to the general legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation bill offered by Senator Chamberlain, and aimed at the General Education Board, and the Rockefeller and Carnegie foundations, which would have also affected about one-third of the teaching staff of the George Washington University, has been changed in conference to read as follows:

The New Amendment

"That on and after July 1, 1919, no Government official or employee shall receive any salary in connection with his services as such an official or employee from any source other than the Government of the United States, except as may be contributed out of the treasury of any State, country or municipality, and no person, association or corporation shall make any contribution to, or in any way supplement the salary of, any Government official or employee for the services performed by him for the United States. Any person violating any of the terms of this proviso shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $1,000 or imprisonment for not less than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment as the court may determine."

The amendment now prohibits officials and employees of the Government from receiving salaries or supplementary pay from private corporations or individuals for services performed by officials and employees for

GIRLS' TENNIS TEAM TO ARRANGE SCHEDULE

Game With Goucher Still Unplayed, Says Miss Stanton

The schedule for the girls' tennis is now being arranged, according to Miss Nell Stanton, manager. There is still opportunity to make the girls' tennis team. More material will be gladly welcomed. Already games have been scheduled with several of the high and private schools. A postponed game is scheduled with Goucher, in Baltimore. If more girls come out, the schedule will be extended to include other near-by colleges, but at present that would not be advisable.

The team at present includes Misses Nell Stanton, business manager; Theodosia Seibold, Charlotte Stimpson, Edith Aultman and Kathleen Moses.

TENNIS MANAGER

ANNOUNCES SCHEDULE

Fenton Fadeley, manager of the men's tennis team, has announced the following schedule for 1917:

Virginia (home) Thurs., May 3.
Catholic U. (at C. U.) Sat., May 3.
Georgetown (home) Tues., May 8.

TAX TO REMAIN $8

Everything is going up, but the Student Tax. Dean Fraser says it will probably be $8, next year just as it is, student publications, and medical is now, and will cover athletic ticket. The apportionment for the different activities is subject to change.

At this time last year, 500 students had agreed to this year's tax, but Dean Fraser has not decided whether there will be a need for such a campaign this year.

The Track Meet

The athletic event which necessitates the most work each year is the track meet. It is the big event of the year and one which every student should attend. Manager James, of the track team, and Howard H. Hodgkins, graduate manager, have spent many days and sometimes going into the early hours of morning in order to surpass previous events of this kind. The work attached to such an undertaking cannot be realized by the student unless he has visited the athletic room and watched the proceeding. The meet tonight will have 34 events. There will be more major relay races than were held in any other local track meet.

As this is the last event which the students will be admitted to on their athletic tickets, everyone should be present. The indoor games need the backing that all other athletics have been getting the past year. Come to the meet and bring a crowd with you. There is plenty of room.

The last few days have been so warm with the exception of yesterday, that the managers of the spring and summer sports have gotten busy with their schedules. The first to get into action are the tennis managers. It is hoped that interdepartmental sports will begin to show life and arrange schedules which will be kept up until the close of college. Last year the baseball league started, and that was about all. Such a league if started this year would meet with student support if past action on the part of the students can be taken as a sign.

The University victory in the battle against the bill which would have robbed it of most of its best professors, benefitted not only the local institutions and individuals, but institutions all over the country which are run on the same principles as George Washington. Had not the Hatchet pointed out the faulty wording in the amendment, it would have been passed without discussion by Congressmen and those educational institutions would have suffered.

will the University give "A Night Off" for the vaudeville show?

The amendments that recently occupied so much space in the Hatchet relative to the faculty employees are somewhat similar to the recent faculty ruling on athletes accepting outside remuneration.

Everybody make tracks for the coming track meet.

Some say there is no dash in ceds. Ask Elkin.

Watchful waiting at the University seems to mean the men-students waiting for the women to bring home the bacon.

Percy To Confess

Dear Joe— The time is coming, Joe, when I will have to tell you who I am. Look for the Cherry Tree. There are some students here who are getting the blame for what I write you and it isn't fair. Still I look at it this way. The Hatchet has no business opening my letters to you and if they get into trouble that is their fault. At the double-header last Saturday night, I met Summer. You know him, Joe. He's a Hoola expert, so they say. I don't know where he got his degree. Well, anyway, Summer comes up to me and says, "Tell me who writes that Percy stuff in the Hatchet. It's great." I made out I didn't hear him, but he repeated the question. "I told the boys at the House I would hang myself if it wasn't you," he added. Well, I confessed it was I. You see, Summer hasn't made his mark in this world yet, and I couldn't let him die young. I told him he should write something that would live after him before he kicked the bucket, and he said he would. I was curious, then Joe, and I asked him what he would write, and he said, "A will." You know Summer was present at the Fresh-Soph tug-of-war. He was called up for it afterwards and asked what part he took in the affair. "The head of one freshman," he answered. Summer says he has a practical socialist for a roommate. I asked him why it was, and he said the fellow wore his shirts, smoked his cigarettes and wrote to his girls. That's going some, isn't it? I never will forget the time, Joe, that John, Summer and I went fishing. We made the agreement that the first one who caught a fish would treat the crowd. Do you know, Joe, that those two fellows had a bite and were too mean to pull them up? Well, I fooled them, anyway. I didn't put any bait on my hook. Joe, you told me a short time ago that there were a lot of girls who don't intend to marry. You haven't been doing a wholesale proposing business, have you? Let me know at that track meet, tonight, at Convention Hall.

PERCY.

STUDENTS QUIT STUDIES TO WORK FOR UNCLE SAM

The present situation in international affairs has caused a number of G. W. students to withdraw from the University due to the extra work needed by the Government.

The Engineering College has already had three withdrawals. Other departments have been affected likewise. The day and night shifts in the Government departments meet at such a time that the students are unable to get to either day or evening classes.

It was thought that the extra men needed by the Government would bring more men to the city and hence make the enrollments balance the withdrawals. Altho a number of men have been to the University, none has registered.

DELEGATES TO THE INTER-FRATERNITY ASSOCIATION

Secretary Edwin B. Hunt, of the Interfraternity Association, sent the Hatchet a corrected list of delegates to that Association. They are:

Logan Morris, 1333 Fifteenth street northwest, Sigma Chi; Bates M. Stovall, The Cecil, Kappa Sigma; Robert Ash, Wardman Courts, Theta Delta Chi; Carl J. Faist, 1916; Sixteenth street, Phi Sigma Kappa; H. B. LeVey, 1236 Euclid street northwest, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; T. A. Lupton, 1628 K street northwest, Sigma Phi Epsilon; H. F. Enlows, Office of Indian Affairs, Sigma Nu; J. S. Otis, 1322 Vermont avenue northwest, Phi Chi; J. E. Houghton, G. W. U. Medical School, Alpha Kappa Kappa; F. T. Chamberlain, Jr., 1323 M street northwest, Kappa Psi; F. W. Wessell, The Premier, 718 Eighteenth street northwest, Omega Tau Sigma.

The officers are: Russell L. Du Val, president, 621 A street northeast, Delta Tau Delta; Munn G. Cannon, vice-president and treasurer, 1333 Fifteenth street northwest, Psi Omega; Edwin B. Hunt, secretary, 4318 Fourteenth street northwest, Kappa Alpha.

G. W. ART SOCIETY MAKING DRAWINGS FOR CHERRY TREE

The G. W. Art Society is now busy endeavoring to make this year's Cherry Tree the best ever from an artistic viewpoint.

Clarence Smith, one of the members, has already completed the full-page drawings for the different sections of the book. The Cherry Tree management claims Mr. Smith's work to be entirely different from any style used in former G. W. yearbooks.

Miss Elizabeth Heilmuller, vice-president of the Society, is taking charge of the drawings which were assigned to the girl members.

In all, 24 artists are at work on the book.

SIGNS OF SPRING

Trees a-buddin' but, by jinks,
Drug store serving icy drinks,
Erstwhile student sits and thinks—
Wants to bum.
Topcoats hangin' in the hall,
Talk of "fussin'" track, baseball,
Themes deserted lab, math,—all
Spring has come.—L. L. L.

Everyone is now looking for signs of spring. The men say that spring is here because the buttons on their overcoats are falling fast. Another sign and a very good one may be seen at the soda fountains. Daily walks without hat or coat are growing popular in front of the A. & S. Building. The professors have felt the coming of spring by the number of vacant seats in their classrooms. (Note: It had to snow just because we received this clever article.)

WOULDN'T IT JAR YOU?

Wouldn't it jar you if you were taken for a convert when you merely went up to ask Gypsy Smith a question?

A group of G. W. girls experienced such a jar when they went to the tabernacle to see Gypsy Smith privately. They "hit the trail" to the platform and before they could say a word the evangelist said:

"Please have seats, ladies."

The girls were ushered to the seats of honor—the seats where the converts sit. And there they were.

Gypsy Smith had mistaken them for "trail hitters" and all the glories bestowed upon such were showered upon them.

COMPANY KEEPS RECORD OF PUBLICITY IN DAILIES

The Artillery Company has posted a bulletin board on which is pasted in the officers' office at the Armory, every article that has appeared in the Washington papers regarding it since its organization.

To date there have appeared approximately eight columns of solid matter and two, three-column cuts, in the Washington papers. This is exclusive of the items appearing in the Hatchet. They are now making another poster on which will be kept all Hatchet articles relating to it.

URGE DEBATING COMBINATION

A closer co-operation between the Enosinian Literary and Debating Society and the Columbian Debating Society was urged by L. Smith, of the latter at the meeting of the Enosinian held recently. The question of universal military service was debated. The affirmative was upheld by Homer Smith and Roy Garver and the negative by Oscar Linden and William Ahlgren. The affirmative won. Roy Garver was chosen honor speaker, John H. Evans, vice president, presided. S. A. Baxter gave an extemporaneous talk, and William Gilligan was critic.

INACTIVITY OF PHARMACY COLLEGE EXPLAINED

Stephens Hughes junior in Pharmacy College, explains to the Hatchet the reasons why Pharmacy students seem inactive:

"In the past the College has taken no prominent part in school activities," he said. "This is not a lack of interest, but due to a condition that exists in no other department of the University. The entire class, with the exception of one or two government clerks, have drug-store positions, and they must necessarily (as long as the public is so hard-hearted as to demand it) work three evenings or more a week. Work probably is an economic as well as an educational condition with most of us. To pass the District Board of Pharmacy a man must have three years of practical experience as well as his college theory. So the Pharmacists have not the time in which to go to football games or attend social affairs."

FLIVER NEARLY PIERCES G. W. ARTILLERY LINE

The G. W. Artillery Company was giving an exhibition drill before General Harvey and Major Buckley, on Maryland avenue, when the command "company front" was given. This put the company crosswise of the street. Altho the street lights made plenty illumination, yet the misty atmosphere and the drab campaign uniforms blended perfectly and made it difficult for anyone to see the file across the street.

While Captain Burns was talking to the men, a fliver turned around the corner and headed straight for the Company at a faster speed than the law allows. General Harvey was first to see the danger. He rushed out in the street and gave a warning command. The chauffeur threw on all brakes and the little machine skidded thru the file-closes and stopped on a line with the rear rank.

The men showed perfect control and held their ground. No fatalities were reported.

Professor Pace Lectures Today On Wordsworth

All the students are going to hear Professor Roy Benett Pace lecture on Wordsworth and the English Lake District, this afternoon at 3:45, in the A. & S. Assembly Hall.

"I hope so. They should," said Professor Croissant. "Every student interested directly or indirectly in the study of English should hear Professor Pace. Wordsworth sounded the keynote of the romantic movement. His real inspirations, for example the Daffodils in 'I wandered lonely as a cloud' were from this region. Prof. Pace has seen it, knows his subject, and the lecture will be good."

Dean Wilbur Urges Support
Dean Wilbur at Chapel urged the co-operation of the student-body to show Prof. Pace their appreciation of his lecture. He said: "Professor Pace will be interesting. The lecture will be instructive and worth while."

Prof. Pace has given this lecture a number of times to other colleges. It is illustrated, the slides are colored and the pictures were taken by him during his trip to England in 1912.

Teachers Invited
The students and teachers of the high schools and other educational institutions of the city are invited. Prof. Pace received his Master's degree from the University, and his Ph. D. from Harvard. He is now assistant professor of English at Swarthmore College. His sister, Miss Pace, is a teacher at Central High. His book, "American Literature," is dedicated to Dean Wilbur. Prof. Pace is interested in us.

The giving of the lecture by other than a professor of the University is an innovation and the faculty hopes that the students will show their interest and support.

PROMINENT ALUMNUS DIES

John Wesley Bixler, Law 1872, was buried at Arlington Monday, under the auspices of the Loyal Legion and the Knights of Pythias.

He was admitted to the bar of the Supreme Court of the District in September, 1872, and in 1876 he was elected circuit prosecuting attorney of the Thirty-fifth Indiana judicial circuit.

Judge Bixler moved to North Platte, Nebraska, in 1880 and two years later was elected county judge, in 1883, being elected district attorney of the Tenth Judicial District of Nebraska. He became a member of the board of pension appeals, Department of Interior, in 1890. He was later appointed an assistant attorney in the office of the attorney general for the Interior Department, a position he held at the time of his death.

UNIVERSITY WINS FIGHT AGAINST DRASTIC BILL

The Government of the United States. The Original Amendment
The original amendment contained clauses which, if passed, would have prohibited any official or employee of the Government from receiving compensation from individuals and corporations outside of the Government for any services whatsoever. Under this amendment Senators and Representatives would not be able to conduct their private business enterprises, the Government could not employ scientific and other experts so needed in getting prepared for eventualities, the members of the faculty of this and other Universities, who work for the Government, would have to give up their teaching positions and scientific work, and George Washington University would have been severely crippled in its work, since more than one-third of the faculty do work in some capacity for the Government.

Hatchet Discovers Flaw
The dangerous clauses in the original amendment were discovered by the Hatchet, and a delegation went to call upon Senator Chamberlain, who told them that he had not intended to hurt the University.

Clephane and Clephane, counsel for the University, were called upon by Admiral Stockton, President of the University, and steps were immediately taken to draw up a substitute amendment with the result that the conferees upon the General Appropriation bill changed the wording of the amendment so that it would not injure the University, and a similar amendment in the Agriculture Appropriation bill affecting the University in the same way, was stricken out entirely in conference.

ENOSINIAN TO DEBATE

The Enosinian Society will meet on Tuesday, March 6, at 8:15 p.m., to debate the question: "Resolved, That there Should Be a League of All Nations to Enforce Peace."

The affirmative of the proposition will be upheld by Jack Evans and Homer Kirby, while the negative will be defended by Adolph Holm and Daniel Logan.

ROOM FOR CHERRY TREE

The added room afforded by the building at 2027 G street will make it possible to move the publications to more spacious quarters. The athletic management will be given a special room and it is probable that the Cherry Tree will be moved from its temporary headquarters at the Hatchet Office, to a room in that building. The Hatchet will keep its present room at 2023 G street. No change will be made until next year, however.

Men Show Up Exceptionally Well At Johns Hopkins Meet

The G. W. quartet ran third in their event at Johns Hopkins last Saturday night. Catholic University nosed out St. John's, while G. W. beat out Maryland State Reserves in a close finish. The men were particularly gratified at beating out the Reserves, because they beat G. W. last year.

Harold Morrison and "Mike" Wingate won G. W.'s only points at that meet. The former won second and the latter third in the running high jump open handicap.

ATHLETICS TO GET $500 FROM PLAY

Although there are still a few outstanding accounts that prevent a definite statement of finances for "A Night Off," Manager Elkin estimates the profits between three and five hundred dollars. This will go to athletics. Due to the efforts of the girls both in getting advertisements and in selling programs, the night of the show, a small profit was made on them also. Manager Elkin also said that he was particularly pleased in that he did not have to forfeit any of the deposit made for damage to the Central High School, as the building was left without a scratch.

Praises Girls For Work

In speaking of the play, Manager Elkin said, "If you have anything good to say, say it about the girls." He desired special mention given to the executive committee that was composed of Martha McGrew, Fay Pierce, Elizabeth Speiser, Eleanor Stanton, Elizabeth Voorhees and Lenore Kolar.

COLUMBIAN DEBATES

At the meeting of the Columbian Society, Friday, February 23, on the question "Resolved That Congress Should Take Steps Toward the Ownership of All Natural Resources and Provide for Their Development under a Leasing System," the team of Cornell and Glover, negative, earned the decision of the judges over the affirmative side of the question, upheld by Messrs. Taylor and French. Honors went to Cornell and French.

For the debate to be held tonight there is scheduled to be contested the question, "Resolved That the Congressional House of Representatives Should Be Composed of Members Elected for Terms of Four Years, One Half the Members to Be Elected Every Two Years," the affirmative side to be taken by O. T. Smith, W. R. West, and T. L. Smith, opposed to R. D. Murphy, E. Pendell and C. O. Marshall.

STUDENTS MAY PARADE

The University officials are willing that the students organize and participate in the Inaugural Parade, but it will not be officially supervised. It must be strictly a student affair, said President Stockton.

Prof. W. L. Prince, of Richmond, presided at the business meeting held at the Alpha Eta chapter house on Saturday morning. The national chapter was represented by Dr. Finis K. Farr, of Cincinnati. Dr. John Covert Boyd, U. S. N., one of the founders of Kappa Sigma, came to this meeting and gave a talk. The only other living founder, John G. McCormick, of Baltimore, is quite seriously ill at present.

The crowning event of the Conclave was the Washington Alumni banquet of Kappa Sigma, held at the University Club on Saturday night. Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo made the principal address. Other speakers were Judge Covington, Representatives Campbell and Goodwin, Dr. Farr and Samuel B. Thomas. P. D. Gold, of New York City, presided as toastmaster. The oldest Kappa Sigma at the banquet was Goodwin H. Williams, who was initiated at the University of Virginia in 1871. Over eighty Kappa Sigmas attended.

LAW SCHOOL

Eugene A. Jones, '95, is the author of a treatise on Equity Pleading and Practice. The text has been adopted by Prof. Clephane in his course.

NURSES' SCHOOL

Miss Billingsley is on duty again after an illness of two weeks.

Miss Taylor has gone to Children's Hospital for two months.

Because of the death of her sister, Miss Kee has not been able to return to her work.

MEDICAL SCHOOL

The Senior bowling team defeated the Sophomores in an interesting contest on February 20. The Seniors now claim the championship of the Medical School. It is doubtful, however, that the claim will go unchallenged, for the Juniors are "hot on their trail."

Robert Oden, '18, has returned to college after a brief illness.

Mrs. Lewis Wright, '18, has been unable to attend classes during the past week, owing to illness.

A question frequently asked at the Medical School is: "Why don't the Freshmen put out a bowling team?" Freshmen, take note!

TEACHERS COLLEGE

Miss Helen White is helping with the work at the Orphanage, tho not registered for the course.

Mr. March has registered in Teachers College this semester.

CO-EDS WIN GAME

The girls' team played an uphill game being left at the short end of 6 to 5 count at the end of the first half, but coming back strong and winning out 18 to 16 in the last few minutes of play.

Short Passes Used

Both teams played the short-passing game and in this as well as in guarding the Buff and Blue were superior. During the second half the visitors scored only four free tosses, while George Washington caged six. Many attempts were made for long, difficult shots, but the majority of these fell short.

Misses Reh and Seibold Star

For the home team Misses Reh and Seibold were the stars, the former caging six baskets.

FACULTY FAVORS "BIBLE"

There is so much pressure on the University catalog for space, by the different organizations of the University, that the faculty is convinced of the worth of the activities booklet which was issued by the Hatchet early in the year. The educational societies have always been given recognition in the catalog, but the book is getting so large there is no more room for such notices.

The officials are now thinking about giving out the college "Bible," which the publications committee of the Council supervises, with the catalogs next year.
